

The Domaine Paterianakis is a boutique family winery that produces organic and natural wines from indigenous grapes. It is located in a semi-mountainous area of an approximate altitude 650 m, near to the "Melesses" village of the Municipality of Nikos Kazantzakis of Heraklion Prefecture on Crete Island. The wider region of "Peza", where the Domaine belongs, is reputed since ancient times for the excellent quality and the exceptional taste of the wines that were produced there. The vineyards of the Domaine belong to a biologically sensitive area appellation of origin Peza of high quality. Domaine Paterianakis is a pioneer in wine production from organic farming grapes on Crete. The Domaine Paterianakis cultivate unique indigenous and first class international varieties using the latest organic techniques and we believe that we can inspire through a series of products with strong personality.
